My Name is John Macnamara

I have been a councilor in Williams for the last five years I have enjoyed my time and feel that I have made a difference to the community and rate payers in the Shire.

My core values for Williams -

- Williams to be Relevant and continue to be a sustainable town into the future
- Attract good business/people to town to further help support our clubs, schools and other existing business's
- Maintain and improve our existing infrastructure and assets to a high level.
- to critique and improve the costs side of the shire budget
- to look and create initiatives to improve income.
- make a difference with my tenure on council and remain objective
- to be open and accept community feedback in all areas

thankyou
