John Macnamara

Born and raised in Williams as were my parents & grandparents who contributed to the town's development and sporting groups. Both generations cleared land and employed locals. This land is still in our family, contributing to regional employment.

I am married with three children running our farming business employing three additional families.

I've been involved in local sport playing football, cricket & in recent times coaching children football. I am also a fire officer in the Narrakine Brigade. I have spent the last 2 years as a councilor on the Williams shire.

Our forebears developed good foundations & I want to continue this, keeping the shire vibrant and progressive.

I have strong business & budgeting knowledge & hands on skills plus an open-minded view on both town & country, having lived in both.

I understand the logistics, machine maintenance, asset management, roads & am a team player.
